STATUS
Version: definitive

These regulations are an implementation of Chapter 7 of the Higher Education and Research Act (WHW), containing the principle rules governing enrolment, termination of enrolment and tuition fees. In a number of articles the Executive Board is commissioned and is given authority to develop further rules governing, for example, enrolment procedures, the level of the tuition fees for students not subject to the statutory fee levels, payment instalments of the tuition fees, and any reduction in or exemption from tuition fees.

- 1.12 4TU PhD and 4TU PDEng candidates who want to attend courses at Wageningen University can enrol as PhD students and do not pay a course fee, provided that the candidate is demonstrably registered at one of the participating universities. WU PhD candidates must be registered in the WU PhD administration system.

2. Possible dates of Enrolment

- 2.1 A first time enrolment in a bachelor's programme as a student or an extraneus is only possible as of 1 September of an academic year.

- 2.2 A first time enrolment as a student or extraneus for a master's programme is possible as of 1 September as well as 1 February of an academic year if:
- the study programme offers a formal second starting moment in February, or
 - an already admitted student or extraneus cannot start per 1 September due to special circumstances and the programme director gives written permission².
- 2.3 Students who have completed a WU bachelor's programme or a pre-master's programme may, within the month following their completion, enrol in a master's programme at WU to which their bachelor's programme or pre-master's programme grants admission, on condition that all other registration requirements for the contiguous master's programme have been met.
- 2.4 A student who completes a pre-master's programme of 30 credits in January may also enrol in the contiguous master's programme as of 1 March.
- 2.5 Re-enrolment in both bachelor's and master's programmes is permitted on 1 September, 1 January, 1 February, 1 March, 1 May and 1 July of an academic year.
- 2.6 Enrolment as a pre-master's student or an educational module student is only possible as of 1 September or 1 February of an academic year.
- 2.7 Registration as an (inter)national guest student and a contract student is possible from the first day of the month in which the course or courses for which the person has been admitted start.
- 2.8 If a student does not timely meet the enrolment obligations as mentioned in this Regulations, the student can only be enrolled if all of the following conditions are met:
- the student has submitted the application for enrolment in time,
 - the student still meets all enrolment requirements no later than in the month in which enrolment started,
 - the programme director gives permission for this enrolment.
- Registration will be retroactive to the first day of the month of enrolment.
- 2.9 Only in very exceptional cases, for instance as set out in Article 7.51 paragraph 2c to g WHW, a student may submit an application for enrolment or re-enrolment, irrespective of the form of enrolment, which is contrary to the provisions of this Regulations. The Head of SSC decides on this matter, partly on the advice of a student dean. The first day of the month in which the student has met all the requirements for enrolment shall be regarded as the commencement date of enrolment.
- 2.10 Retroactive registration as of 1 October is not permitted.

3. Rights after enrolment

- 3.1 After enrolment, the student receives, regardless of the form of enrolment, a one-off WUR card and the opportunity to download proof of enrolment.
- 3.2 A person who is enrolled in a study programme as a 'student' has the following rights:
- participation in regular education at WU,
 - taking (re-)exams and the examination of the study programme,

² For two master's programmes, MID (International Development Studies) and MFT (Food Technology), the possible second date for enrolment is 1 January 2023.

- c. use of libraries, laboratories and other scientific facilities and collections belonging to WU,
- d. to use student facilities, including the services of the student deans and student psychologists,
- e. to receive study supervision from lecturers and study advisors,
- f. to exercise active and passive voting rights for the study programme committees and participatory bodies,
- g. the opportunity to participate in committees or organs within WU like programme committees, Board of Education and Student Council.

3.3 An extraneus has the rights referred to in Article 3.2 under b and c.

3.4 An (inter)national guest student, PhD student, pre-master's student and education module student is only entitled to participate in the courses for which the student is enrolled and to take the corresponding examinations. Furthermore, these students have the rights mentioned in article 3.2 under c to e.

3.5 A contract student is entitled to:

- a. participating in the courses for which the contract student is registered and taking the corresponding examinations,
- b. taking at least one resit for each failed course in the academic year of enrolment.

3.6 For all students participating in regular education and examinations, regardless of the form of enrolment, the relevant rules apply that are included in the EER of the academic year concerned.

3.7 For a number of courses, the Executive Board has set a maximum number of participants (see the Study Handbook). The following applies to these courses:

- a. Students and pre-master students of WU will be given priority for placement;
- b. If national guest students apply, they should submit an alternative course without a maximum restriction, in case placement in the course of their first choice is not possible, also if it is part of a minor;
- c. Contract students can only participate in a course with a maximum if there are places left after the application deadline and with the approval of the course coordinator.

3.8 The Executive Board may, for each type of enrolment, restrict participation in education and examinations, as well as access to and use of libraries, laboratories and other academic facilities and collections belonging to the university.

4. Registration period and termination of enrolment

4.1 For an enrolment as a student or extraneus, registration ends automatically on the last day of the academic year, 31 August.

4.2 Enrolment will be terminated before 31 August at the written request of the student:

- a. on the last day of the month in which the student submits the request,
- b. on the last day of a following month if the student indicates this in the request.
- c. If the student chooses the reason 'graduation' in the request for deregistration, the request will only be processed if the student has actually graduated.

4.3 The enrolment of a national guest student automatically ends at the end of the last month of the enrolment period. The enrolment will be terminated earlier, if the enrolment at the first institution is terminated during that period or at the request of the student.

- 4.4 The following applies to the international guest student:
- a. an enrolment lasts a maximum of twelve months, whereby the enrolment may extend over more than one academic year,
 - b. if the student is enrolled for a maximum of twelve months in the bachelor's phase, an enrolment of twelve months in the master's phase is also possible,
 - c. if the total duration of enrolment exceeds twelve months in one phase (bachelor or master), the enrolment will be terminated immediately.
- 4.5 The pre-master's student and the education module student are enrolled for a maximum of 1 academic year. Within this academic year, the pre-master's programme or the education module must be completed.
- 4.6 The contract student is enrolled for the periods in which the courses are taught. Registration will end on the last day of the month in which the date of the last (re-)examination falls.
- 4.7 If a student has received a BBC from WU for a second enrolment at another HO institute, WU informs that other institute about the termination of the enrolment at WU.
- 4.8 When deregistering a student or extraneus, the institution will inform the person involved, DUO and, where applicable, the IND of the deregistration.
- 4.9 WU can refuse or terminate the registration, regardless the type, in the following cases:
- a. if, after registration, it appears that the registered person did not meet one or more of the conditions of registration at the time of registration. The registration will be terminated with immediate effect;
 - b. if the student, regardless the type of registration, violates the rules of enrolment;
 - c. If the student, even after receiving formal notice by the university, has failed to pay any instalment of the tuition fees on time. The enrolment will be terminated as from the second month following the month in which the notice is sent;
 - d. If the student is enrolled at WU on the basis of a BBC and terminates enrolment at the other institution, WU will end the enrolment as from the date of deregistration at the other institution. The student can maintain the enrolment at WU by meeting the financial obligations for an enrolment at WU prior to deregistering;
 - e. if the student has received a binding refusal following a negative study advice from the Executive Board, WU will refuse re-enrolment for the programme concerned for three consecutive academic years;
 - f. if the applicant or registered student:
 - is guilty of serious fraud during the enrolment process and the Executive Board, on the advice of the Admission Committee, has decided to reject the enrolment,
 - is guilty of serious fraud related to the study programme as defined in Article 7.12b (2) WHW and the Examining Board proposes the termination of the enrolment,
 - causes serious disturbance and continues with such disturbance even after receiving formal warning by the Executive Board.

The registration and the WUR account will be terminated immediately and permanently in these cases; also, the Executive Board can refuse new requests for registration during a period to be determined by the board.

5. Tuition fees, examination fees, compensation

- 5.1 Anyone enrolling in a bachelor's or master's programme, a pre-master's programme, an educational module, as an external student or as a contract student, shall pay statutory tuition fees, institutional tuition fees, a fee or examination fees. The situation prevailing on the first day of registration for the academic year determines the type of tuition fees and amount to be paid, but if there is a change in the situation of a student, WU may adjust the type of tuition fees and amount to be paid as of the first day of the month following the change, irrespective of the form of registration. Check the website for the tuition fees of bachelors' and masters'.

- 5.2 It is possible to pay the statutory fees and ic1 and ic2 in five instalments. Examination fees, fees for pre-master's programmes and ic3 must be paid in one payment. For payment in instalments an extra administration fee of €24 is charged. When registering from 1 March or later, it is not possible to pay in instalments. Payment in instalments is only possible through A direct debit authorisation from a European SEPA bank. After termination of enrolment due to arrears, re-enrolment in the current academic year is only possible after the remaining tuition fees are paid in one lump sum plus - if applicable - the outstanding amount.
- 5.3 The tuition fee or fee will be set at zero for:
- students who have enrolled in a joint programme with a foreign university (double degree) and who have paid the tuition fee to that foreign university, if the Dean of Education has determined that this is permitted,
 - international guest students if this is provided for in the agreement to which the student is subject,
 - PhD candidates and EngD candidates of 4TU.
- 5.4 The international guest student and the double degree student who is not exempt from paying tuition fees shall pay tuition fees in accordance with the agreements in the collaboration agreement.
- 5.5 The Executive Board may define a special institutional tuition fee for one or a group of study programmes or for a specific group of students. The Executive Board has defined at least two different institutional fees in 2023-2024 for:
- The master's programme Water Technology (joint degree),
 - The part-time online master specialisations 'Plant Breeding' (specialisation of Master Plant Sciences), 'Nutritional Epidemiology and Public Health' (specialisation of master Nutrition and Health) and 'Food Technology' (specialisation of Master Food Technology).
- 5.6 A contract student pays a fee per credit for the courses for which the student has registered (see website).
- 5.7 A student from a Virtual Exchange (VE) partner university, can register at WU to get grades and credits from a MOOC:
- If the partner university is a Dutch HO institution, the student will be enrolled as a national guest student without paying a fee (under the condition of a BBC);
 - If the partner university is a foreign institution, the student will be enrolled as an international guest student without paying a fee,
 - A person not enrolled at a VE partner university must register as a contract student and pay a fee (see website for fees)
- 5.8 If during the academic year it turns out that a student, regardless of the type of enrolment, is enrolled for a tariff but does not meet the conditions for that tariff, the student owes the tariff appropriate for that enrolment for the duration of the enrolment in which the conditions are not met.

6. Reduction, exemption and refund of tuition fees

- 6.1 A student who enrolls for a programme as from October 1 and further months, will owe tuition fees calculated in proportion to the number of months remaining in the academic year.
- 6.2 A student who started a master's programme with an official second start moment in February and pay the ic2 or ic3, can apply for a one-off exemption from one month's tuition fees. To be eligible, the student must meet all the following conditions:
- the student has enrolled for the first time for the master's programme by 1 February 2022,
 - the student remains enrolled for two consecutive calendar years for the master's programme concerned until 31 January 2024,
 - the student needs to extend enrolment for no longer than 1 month than the nominal duration of the programme of study in order to graduate,
 - The application for the exemption must be submitted to the SSC before 1 February 2024.
- 6.3 An exemption from payment of statutory tuition fees, pre-master's programme fees or education module tuition fees is possible for those who are already enrolled as a HO student in the Netherlands and who also want to enrol at WU as a student for a second bachelor's or master's study, a pre-master's programme or an education module and who meet the following conditions:
- the first enrolment is an enrolment as a student, as defined in the WHW, at WU or another funded institution for higher education in the Netherlands, the Open University excluded,
 - the student pays the statutory tuition fees, as defined in Article 7.45a of the WHW, for the first enrolment,
 - the student is eligible for payment of the statutory tuition fees at WU as mentioned in Article 7.45a of the WHW,
 - the statutory tuition fee to be paid at WU is equal to or less than the statutory tuition fee for the first study programme. If the amount of tuition fees to be paid to WU is higher than the statutory tuition fees paid for the first study programme, then the difference has to be paid,
 - WU receives an original BBC from the institution of first registration.
- 6.4 A student who pays the ic3 to WU and is enrolled as a student in a second or subsequent program at WU, also subject to the ic3, will be exempt from paying tuition for the program subject to the lowest institutional fee.
- 6.5 A student or extraneus whose enrolment was terminated at their own request may receive a refund of tuition fees. No refunds will be possible for any other type of enrolment. Any refund will be set off against with outstanding instalments of the fees and/or other financial claims against the student. The following provisions apply :
- The amount of the refund will be 1/12 of the tuition fees owed for each complete month following termination of enrolment. No refund will be made if enrolment is terminated as of 1 July or 1 August.
 - In the event of the death of a student during an academic year the amount of the refund will be 1/12 of the tuition fees owed for each complete month following his/her death, including July and August.
 - In the case of enrolment for two or more study programmes at the same time at WU, whereby an exemption from tuition fees is granted in respect of the first programme, a refund is only possible if enrolment for all programmes is terminated at the same time.

7. Other terms and conditions

- 7.1 In case of a decision to terminate the programme by OCW or WU, the student is entitled to complete the programme at WU or another institution within a reasonable period of time.
- 7.2 A person who is not enrolled at WU and who uses education and/or examination facilities, or a student who makes use of education and/or examination facilities that do not belong to the pre-master or education module for which the student is enrolled, will have to pay compensation pursuant to section 15.2 of the WHW, up to the highest WU institutional rate. When enrolling as a student, any results obtained earlier, and which do not belong to the premaster programme or the education module, will not be valid and cannot lead to an exemption.
- 7.3 A person who is not enrolled but who makes use of the teaching and/or examination facilities of WU may be liable to pay a second-category penalty pursuant to Article 15.3 WHW.
- 7.4 In the event that tuition fees are not paid on time or at all, WU will block the WUR card of the student two weeks following the first formal warning. In the event of termination of enrolment of a student during the academic year, WU will close the student's WUR account two weeks following the deregistration date.
- 7.5 The Head of the SSC is responsible for the implementation of this Regulations for Enrolment. In cases not covered by this regulations, any decision will be taken by Executive Board on the advice of the Head of the SSC.
- 7.6 Objections:
- a. A formal objection may be filed with the Student Legal Protection Desk, addressed to the Executive Board, against any decision taken pursuant to this resolution within six weeks of receipt of such decision. Notice of the right to object shall be contained in the decision of or on behalf of the Executive Board. The procedure for appeal is laid down in the Student Charter.
 - b. A contract student cannot submit an objection. If the student does not agree with a decision made on the basis of this regulation, the student may file a complaint to the SSC.
- 7.7 Hardship clause: in very special circumstances the Executive Board may deviate from this Regulations in favour of the student. This is the case if a decision would result in disproportionate disadvantage or unfairness of a serious nature. A request to this end must be submitted in writing, preferably via legalprotection.students@wur.nl, and if possible accompanied by documentary evidence. Application of this hardship clause may not result in any reduction in, or exemption from, the statutory tuition fees except as provided for by Article 7.48 sections 1 to 7 WHW.
- 7.8 These regulations are valid for the academic year 2023-2024, except where any parts of these regulations become invalid in the interim as a result of any changes in the law, or if the Executive Board, following consultation with the Student Council, decides on any interim amendment.

These Regulations have been enacted by the Executive Board at its meeting of May 22, 2023
