

STUDY CIRCLE FOR DEVELOPMENT ISSUES / SKOV

Studiekring voor ontwikkelingsvraagstukken/SKOV

The Study Circle for Development Issues (SKOV), in cooperation with the United Community of African Students (UCAS) in Wageningen UR, Study Associations Ipso Facto and NITROCA and Nji-Sri has the pleasure to invite you, members, students, alumni and other interested persons to a seminar on:

Grains, trade and African food systems

Date: 18 January 2023 at 17:00 h

Venue: Forum Building (Wageningen Campus), Room B 0759

Programme:

16:30h Room open, with coffee and tea.

17:00h Formal opening by Cor de Jong, president SKOV

17:05h Introduction by Rita Ndam, chairperson United Community of African Students,

17:10h Presentation by Bart de Steenhuijsen Piters (WUR)

Grains, trade and African food systems

part I: a crash course in food systems theory part II: international food trade as illustrated by the Ukrainian war

part III: enhancing the resilience of African food systems

17:55h Discussion, led by UCAS-chairperson.

18:30h Closure of the seminar; a drink will be offered afterwards, and an opportunity to have a snack. Kindly note: SKOV offers you a drink, the snack is for your own costs.

If you plan to participate, please send an email to ir Marijke Huydts: huydtsbm@pt.lu. Could you also indicate if you want us to provide a snack for you?

From 19:30-22:00 h, a 'Decolonization panel' will be held, organised by student association Ipso Facto at Thuis, Stationsstraat 32, Wageningen. Those who are interested, are most welcome.

