Hotel Tip

- Fletcher hotel-Wageningsche Berg (conference location):
In case this hasn't been done yet, you can still book a room via their website. The hotel is on top of the Wageningse Berg and has a panoramic view over the Rhine riverscape. There are plenty of walking routes that bring you through the forested moraine, the budding Arboretum, lively floodplains and the river. The hotel also has a wellness and has options for bike rent.

If you prefer, you might stay in the Wageningen city center:

- WICC hotel
- Hotel de Wereld

Restaurant and bar tips

Diner for Day 1 (16th October) is settled and will include a project diner at Restaurant Belmonte - Fletcher Hotel De Wageningsche Berg. As for the other evenings, there are several restaurants in the center of Wageningen where you could go for dinner or a drink.

- Restaurant 'LEV @ De Wereld' at the 5th of May Square has a historical character as it was a traveller's lodge in 1669 and transformed into a place of negotiation during the capitulation of the German occupier in 1945. It became a monument of peace and freedom.
- Soek Damascus for Syrian kitchen
- Colors World Food with weekly thematic options
- Sa Lolla and Sole d'Italia for Italian kitchen
- Bistro Balthazar or Petit Louis for French kitchen
- Diels restobar

For nightcaps, reflections and 'gezelligheid' (Dutch word for fun coziness), the brown café De Zaaier and Het Rad van Wageningen offer locally brewed spiced gin and beers.
