Course Catalogue

Each semester is divided into two study periods, with full-time studies requiring 15 ECTS per study period.

This exchange agreement is within the field of Biology, and we expect incoming students to take some of their courses within our department. While it may be possible to include courses from other departments or faculties, we cannot guarantee availability.

Students wishing to take courses outside the Biology department should select at least one course from the Biology Education Centre as a backup option for each study period. Please note that courses at Uppsala University have limited spots, and some may become full. Additionally, courses within Biomedicine are not offered by our department.

Please see the list of courses offered by the Biology Education Centre.
