Supply of personal data to other parties

SWU Thymos will only pass your personal data on to another party without your consent if this is necessary for the purposes of executing an agreement which SWU Thymos has with you, unless SWU Thymos has a legal duty to provide your personal data to such party. You may find a list of the situations in which personal data is supplied to other parties in the table at the beginning of this privacy statement.

The inspection, correction, addition, restriction and erasure of or to personal data

You are entitled to ask SWU Thymos to allow you to inspect your personal data or to add to it, or to delete, restrict or transfer it. Furthermore, you are entitled to lodge an objection against a specific way in which your personal data is processed in accordance with the GDPR or, where your personal data is processed on the basis of your consent, to revoke such consent. You are required to identify yourself when making such a request.

Personal data security

SWU Thymos will adopt appropriate measures to secure personal data against its loss, unauthorised access to it, its publication and any unlawful processing of it. In this way we will ensure that only the people who need to have access will have access to your data, that access to your personal data is restricted and that our security measures are regularly audited.

Links to other websites

Our website may have links to other websites. This privacy statement only applies to the websites of SWU Thymos. Other websites may have their own privacy policy. SWU Thymos recommends that before using another website, you always consult its privacy statement.

Amendment of privacy policy

SWU Thymos amends its privacy policy from time to time in order to keep it up-to-date. The most recent version of our privacy statement will always be published on our websites. SWU Thymos recommends that you consult this privacy statement regularly. In the event that there are any major changes, SWU Thymos will do all in its power to inform you of this by email or through its websites.

Complaints about the processing of your personal data

Naturally, we would also like to help you further if you have a complaint concerning the processing of your personal data. In accordance with the GDPR, you are also entitled to submit a complaint to the Dutch Data Protection Authority concerning the way in which we process your personal data. You may contact the Dutch Data Protection Authority for this purpose.

Agreements

The SWU Thymos executive board has entered into a data processing agreement with the executive board of Bongerd Sports Centre. As a result, SWU Thymos has access to specific matters recorded in the sports centre's system. This refers to the categories, 'administration' and the 'supply of information in the form of newsletters'.
